

Wedding chic

The wedding season is about to begin in earnest and the catwalk has been buzzing with the new trends for the mother of the bride to wear. On the knee lengths seem to be favoured by the designers this spring. Shimmery, metallic fabrics mix with bold citrus lemons and limes to create a look guaranteed to stand out from the crowd.

Take note of the bridesmaid dresses and opt for a shade lighter if possible. With many delicious colours out there, you will find the perfect colourway. Striking animal print is also a mainstay this season and can provide a floaty, elegant choice.
