

Men only...

Stylish nightwear has now hit the gentleman's arena with striking dressing gowns in various fabrics, from warm, fluffy towelling to cool and sophisticated silks. Relax in comfort as you read the Sunday newspapers on a weekend in the most fashionable robes around.

Daywear has a look of its own this season as patterns mix with simple weaves to create a co-ordinated ensemble.

More formal wear takes on a cheeky look as suits are paired with shorts as a slight nautical wave strikes. Navy blues teamed with crisp whites in natural fabrics combine comfort with cutting edge fashion, taking office wear to all new heights.
