Fever pitch

With the World Cup 2010 on its way, a new range of accessories have been launched by T M Lewin. Subtle tie pins and cufflinks make a novel yet stylish statement. Other trends include a nod towards vintage clothing as retro makes a comeback. Casual wear offers Granddad shirt necklines and knitwear brings back the Arran-style cardigans for those cooler days.

Formal wear sees the resurgence of the waistcoat. Teamed with either a silk tie or bow tie, single-breasted tailored suits flatter any height or shape. Colours favour shades of blue and grey, although light brown/beige suits are popular for the summer season. Team with contrasting accessories for the latest look.
