CONFIRMATION ON CONFIRMATION – STAR LETTER

I have been going through some things that belonged to my parents and came across this photograph, which I hope readers of Lincolnshire Life will be able to help me with finding out the occasion. At first I thought it could be a Confirmation, as there are some little girls dressed in white, but they are too young, I think. My mother has written on the back 'Brothertoft.' I know it is Brothertoft Village Hall. My Father's family lived in the village, when he was a boy. His name was George Redmile and I remember him telling me that he was Head Server at Brothertoft Church. I think he is on the back row. I wonder if any reader also has a relative on the photograph and if they know when it was taken. I think if it is my Father in the photograph then it could be in the early 1920's as he was born in 1911.

Thanking you in advance and thank you for a great magazine.

NEW CHURCH WARDEN

I took this on my mobile phone – he was sitting in the entrance to the church in Little Cawthorpe – a very handsome churchgoer!

WINTER'S END

The end of a long winter
 Couldn't wait,
 Snowdrops were early,
 Battling through strewn bark,
 A deterrent to weeds,
 In spite of its barrier,
 Bobbed their heads,
 In the strong wind,
 The creamy white bell flowers,
 And their straight, tapered
 Bright green leaves.
