

Audi Q5 2.0 TFSI Quattro manual

The handsome Audi Q5 combines the poise of a sports saloon with options for leisure-time and family use. Strong and efficient engines, quattro permanent all-wheel drive and agile running have been brought together to create a performance SUV for all seasons and all surfaces.

With its elegant, flowing lines the design of the Q5 is perfectly in tune with the character of Audi as a brand. The front end is dominated by expressive headlights on both sides of the large single-frame grille and viewed from the side, the large wheels and rising edges are especially prominent features. At the rear, the wraparound tailgate clearly identifies this SUV as a relative of its older brother, the Audi Q7.

At 2.81 metres in length, the wheelbase is the longest in its segment, creating a roomy interior on board the Audi Q5. The vehicle comfortably accommodates five people in seats that can be flexibly arranged. The backrests for the rear seats are angle-adjustable and especially easy to fold down by activating the remote release lever in the luggage compartment. This compartment, offering access to a second storage area under the floor, then expands from 540 to 1,560 litres in volume. Brilliant!

The Audi Q5 has been designed to make light work of leisure-time and family activities. Numerous practical storage compartments, drink holders, bottle holders and onboard power outlets are supplied as standard, and on request the German car maker even offers a climate-controlled drink holder to keep drinks hot or cold.

The Q5 comes standard with a useful electro-parking brake, an intelligent chip key, a climate control system and a display screen in the instrument cluster depicting, among other things, the recommended ideal gear for efficient driving.

The Q5 is a car of two halves; on one hand it's an ideal country lifestyle vehicle, and on the other it is simply a safe, strong, luxury family car that will last for years.

Tim Barnes-Clay

FACTS AND FIGURES

- Max speed: 138 mph
- 0-62 mph 7.2 seconds
- Combined mpg: 33.6
- Engine: 2.0 TFSI
- Power: 211 PS
- Torque: 350 Nm between 1,500 rpm and 4,200 rpm
- CO₂: 195 g/km
- Price: £28,210