

Move to... Scenic Stamford

With its beautiful architecture and stunning views, Stamford is the perfect place to visit, but why not stay a little longer? We have selected five of the best properties available to buy this spring.

WHERE? St George's Street
DESCRIPTION: Grade II listed town house of great character thought to date from around 1640. Recently renovated, the property has many delightful period features, including exposed beams and stonework. The property has two bedrooms and is located in an ideal position just off the High Street.

HOW MUCH? £285,000. For details contact Paul Johnson 01780 482121 or visit www.stamfordestateagents.com

WHERE? Casterton Lane
DESCRIPTION: Superb family home on a spacious plot of two-thirds of an acre with excellent views. The village of Tinwell is a sought after area unspoilt by modern development just one mile west of Stamford. The property provides roomy accommodation, with four bedrooms.

HOW MUCH? £595,000. For details contact Paul Johnson 01780 482121 or visit www.stamfordestateagents.com over three floors and has seven or eight bedrooms and six reception rooms.

HOW MUCH? £775,000. For details contact Knight Partnership on 01780 765060 or visit www.knightpartnership.com

HOW MUCH? £485,000. For details contact Knight Partnership on 01780 765060 or visit www.knightpartnership.com

WHERE? St Mary's Place

DESCRIPTION: Self-contained first floor apartment in a superb town house originating from the early eighteenth century, having ashler stone façade under a Collyweston slate roof. The apartment is light and airy with large Georgian windows with shutters and high ceilings. The property has one double bedroom.

HOW MUCH? £120,000 Leasehold. For details contact Paul Johnson 01780 482121 or visit www.stamfordestateagents.com

WHERE? Main Road, Tallington
DESCRIPTION: A substantial individual stone built family residence set within large gardens backing onto open farmland. The generous and versatile accommodation has been arranged

WHERE? Rutland Terrace
DESCRIPTION: This imposing four storey Grade II listed town house forms part of a Georgian terrace row dating back to 1829. The accommodation comprises five bedrooms, three reception rooms and large reception hall. Outside there is a gated garden to the front. The rear garden is walled with a garden room and single garage.

SUPERB VIEWS OVER THE WELLAND VALLEY

