

We have featured twelve superb buildings that were either new build or a period renovation. All have shown originality in design and consideration towards the environment in some way and look beautiful.

We are now looking for a winner in the competition and so are urging readers to cast their vote. Which building do you think is a worthy winner? Which entrant best represents the fantastic architecture in the county?

To cast your vote, simply choose your favourite from the twelve featured. The three finalists will appear in the June issue from which the eventual winner will be decided upon by the Heritage Committee. Send in your entry, complete with contact details by Friday 14th May to: Lincolnshire Life Best Build Competition, Lincolnshire Life Magazine, County Life, 9 Checkpoint Court, Sadler Road, Lincoln LN6 3PW.

Votes cast for the finalists will be entered into a draw to win a bottle of Champagne.
