BBC Children in Need

BBC Lincolnshire put their best foot forward

Photographs: Scott Murray

The aim of the day was to raise 'loads of money' by keeping twenty-four dancers on the dance floor at The Lawns from 8am on Friday, 20th November to 8am on Saturday morning! BBC Lincolnshire provided a number of workshops and 'freestyle' dances for all ages and abilities.

People came from near and far, Westgate, Mount Street and Chad Varah and Queen's Park Schools. Dancers came from as far afield as Wakefield, Nottingham and even London.

With the help of the very generous public BBC Lincolnshire raised a whopping £3,782.21. BBC Lincolnshire would like to thank everyone who came along and supported the event. Experienced dancers and total beginners came to have a go at the vast range of dances.

RAF Cranwell dress down for Children in Need

Service men and women at RAF Cranwell swapped their light blue uniforms for dressing gowns and pyjamas to raise money for Children in Need. LAC Lizzie Driver, FS Stuart Coppard and SAC Sarah Partridge, pictured collecting at the Main Gate, were among personnel from the Special Police Wing and the Personnel Services Flight who put on fancy dress and roamed the Station collecting donations in aid of the BBC's annual fund-raiser.

"We may be in the middle of a recession," said FS Coppard, "but people have been so generous with their donations. It's great to see everyone supporting Children in Need."

The Personnel Services Flight also organised a Quiz Night in aid of Children in Need and raised £441. Added to the cash collected on the day - £646.34 - that gives them a fantastic total of £1087.34.
