Anniversary Celebrations

Photographs: Roger Cousner

LIVES held their first ever major Charity Ball last month at the Lincolnshire Showground EPIC Centre. The spectacular event was held to celebrate the 10th anniversary of the First Responder Scheme.

Over 220 guests were wined and dined and then danced the night away to Party Pulse Disco and 'Soul Solution'. BBC Lincolnshire's Rod

Whiting compered a highly successful auction and raffle which raised £2,240 and Judy Theobald conducted a very entertaining interview with three of the police riders that competed in the fundraising Pyrenean 'Ride for LIVES'. LIVES Chairman Dr Alan Sagar in his opening speech praised the Medics and Responders on the excellent work they do as volunteers. He explained how LIVES has grown to 110 groups and nearly 600 First Responders since starting in 1975 and how vital LIVES is for Lincolnshire.
